The Specialization Course consists of a Blended Course and Work Based Learning. In the following table that presents the (learning) effort allocation per VET curricula phase, we see the details of the specialization course.

| | # of hours (learning equivalent) | | | | | |
|-------------------------|----------------------------------|------------------|-----|-----------------|-----------------------|--|
| VET Curricula | Online | Face- to-face | WBL | TOTAL (Spec) | TOTAL (curriculum) | |
| DSM (23 competences) | 130 | 24 | 205 | 359 | 439 | |
| DCC (22 competences) | 115 | 24 | 205 | 344 | 424 | |
| DID (27 competences) | 135 | 24 | 205 | 364 | 444 | |
| OCM (26 competences) | 137 | 24 | 205 | 366 | 446 | |

Analytically, the Blended Course consisted of 24 weeks/or 360hrs in total (aggregately). It included Face to Face learning of 6days/or 24hrs, on-line and self-study of 288hrs and assessment of 48hrs.

The online and self-study components of the Blended Course were developed and delivered in a similar way to the Mu.SA MOOC. Depending on the job profile selected, in each week there was a set of different modules/ competences available for study.

More specifically, there was available:

Core material: Similar to the one developed in the MOOC, mostly consisting of lectures and additional material of any kind of self-study (presentations, papers, articles, videos, e-books etc.).

Assessment: Quizzes like multiple –choice questions and True/ False Questions that assess the learning outcomes of the educative material provided.

Practical Assignments: Practical activities assigned to the trainees, customized and adjusted for each competence provided. The practical assignment was graded by the Tutor of the module.

The Work Based Learning lasted 10 weeks/or 205hrs in total, which means 200hrs of practical learning in a museum or other cultural organization and 5hrs of assessment.

The Work Based Learning took place in museums and cultural organizations almost simultaneously with the Blended Course in Greece, Italy and Portugal.

During the Work Based Learning, the learners had the opportunity to undertake activities, in accordance to the job profile they selected in the museum or other cultural organization that have agreed to host them. These activities were designed and decided between the learner, the employer as well as the Tutors and Supervisors of the Mu.SA project, who were ready to assist the learner in this "full of experiences" path!

Upon completion, and succeeding the 80% of the graded activities, there were given the opportunity to earn a Certificate (DOWNLOADED through the platform upon successful completion) and a Europass compliant CV supplement (available in supporting documents).

The online learning platform can be accessed (in student mode) byclickingthe"GOTOTHECOURSE":https://mooc.cti.gr/musamooc.html. Credentials are required.
