1. The Mu.SA online dissemination material

The Mu.Sa project and the consortium members have developed diverse digital dissemination material of the project. The material can be presented in three categories: (1) corporate material (2) publications (3) event related material and (4) Mu.SA quotes. These have been developed in various project languages (Greek, Italian, Portuguese + English¹).

The table below lists the digital dissemination material produced, supporting documents are uploaded on basecamp WP7 – R7.3 – Online dissemination material

In the same folder you can also find reference to mentions of the project (websites, social media) on other media than the project's itself, which is not intended to be exhaustive.

¹ Please, note that P11 – Culture Action Europe is physically based in Brussels, Belgium, but do not represent the project country in the project. Hence, material was not produced in BE official languages – which are French, Dutch and German. The consortium, however, translated the Mu.SA leaflet in French, for dissemination purposes on the events taking place in Brussels as an exception.
